THE WALDORF-ASTORIA COLLECTION

PARK CITY, UTAH

Yesterday

Back in the '30s, a true ski vacation was a winter-long retreat to the Swiss Alps; a spa conjured up visions of exotic, therapeutic mineral baths; and air travel was the domain of only the most adventuresome.

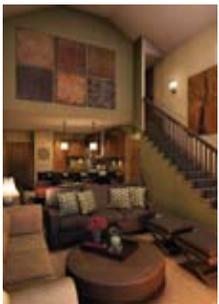

Today

Welcome to the world of The Dakota Mountain Lodge™. In a single, magnificent stroke of uncompromising vision and exacting attention to detail, The Dakota brings together all the classic elements of a bygone era in a mountain resort of such quality and distinction, its unique character can be summed up in five shining stars and a single, silver garland.

Tomorrow

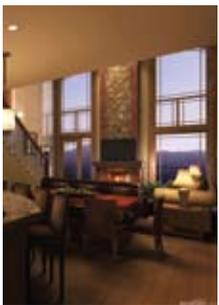

The Dakota Mountain Lodge represents one of the most attractive opportunities to own a second home in Utah's Park City, the last, best undiscovered destination ski town in America. And just when you may have considered this sort of option out of reach, The Dakota offers a combination of amenities, location, finishes, and value, that places it among the most spectacular, most attainable opportunities to consider for you, your family, and your future.

Incomparable, yet accessible.

The Dakota Mountain Lodge is the newest member of the prestigious Waldorf=Astoria Collection™ of fine hotels and residences. At the same time, we offer guests the utterly incomparable experience of The Golden Door Spa™, a world-class sanctuary of rejuvenation and relaxation. Finally, The Dakota Mountain Lodge is located within The Canyons Resort,® Utah's largest and most accessible ski and summer playground. Just thirty minutes from Salt Lake International Airport, guests can fly in from either coast, and be on the slopes the very same day.

The ultimate condominium hotel.

The Dakota is comprised of 170 spacious condominium residences. It's located at the base of the new Frostwood Gondola, so it offers true ski-in, ski-out accessibility. Everywhere you look, The Dakota surrounds you with magical blend of form and function, art and purpose, design and distinction. Its rustic, mountainesque architecture balances with exquisite, contemporary furnishings to provide an innate sense of style and detail. In the tradition of classic Alpine ski resorts, warmth and hospitality suffuse every corner of The Dakota.

The Greatest Snow on Earth®

From your front door at The Dakota, you'll discover a wealth of outdoor activity at The Canyons. Every vantage delivers an awe-inspiring reminder of why this remarkable destination consistently ranks among the top ski vacation experiences in North America. Explore 3,600 acres of Utah's finest powder, or venture out to Park City Mountain Resort®, or Deer Valley Resort®, just a few, short minutes away. No other resort offers such a variety of activities: Snowmobiling, dogsledding, and Nordic skiing. You can even bobsled or ski-jump at the Utah Olympic Park, right next door.
